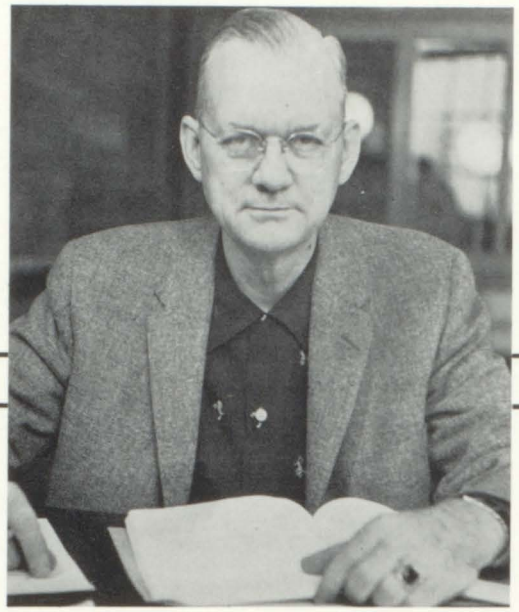
PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE



GREETINGS!

Within the limits of this fine annual we couldn't begin to describe the significance our philosophy of education has for the teaching of responsibility, the maturing of young people into thoughtful citizens, the security of our country, and the success and happiness of our graduates. These are aims at Maroa High, and the Class of 1958 have shared in these experiences. We invite your inspection at any time and know you will be favorably impressed with what you find.

SENIOR POEM

As Freshmen we came
To study and learn
With Initiation fun
A year page we turn.

Our sophomore year
We welcomed then
We studied hard
With book and pen.

Junior rings
and many things
Leaves a glowing ember for us to remember.

Senior year has come at last
That senior play
Oh! what a cast!

Our senior prom was really great
We danced all night with a perfect date.

Now we are standing on the threshold of life
So hold your heads high
Though trouble and strife.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of Maroa High School, being mindful that our school days are about over, desire to leave, devise, and bequeath our earthly possessions as follows:

We devise and bequeath to the juniors our rank as seniors. We shall have no further use for it.

To the juniors we bequeath the right to wear the caps and gowns, with the warning that they should wear a dignified look and keep their heads level, or the cap may fall off.

To the sophomores we bequeath our ability to get by in class with a minimum of study.

To the Freshmen we leave the ambitions we had as freshmen.

To the faculty we leave our appreciation for kindness and patience. We are eternally grateful for their decision to let us graduate.

Our special and individual bequests we list as follows:

I, Larry Austin, leave my quiet ways to Alan Marsh.

I, Margaret Baldwin, leave my good humor to Janet Marshall.

I, George Bennett, leave my chicken business to my brother, Richard.

I, Duane Boyer, leave my red hair to Ardella Clifton, who already has some.

I, James Brown, leave my position on the "A" team to Junior Odle.

I, Patricia Brown, leave my ability to get things done to Roy Hanks.

I, Benny Caplinger, leave my heighth to Ronnie Wikoff.

I, John Crabtree, leave my knowledge of agriculture to John Parker.

I, Mary Creekmur, leave my crazy chatter to my sister, Rosie.

I, Mary Cummings, leave my singing ability to Sally Blickensderfer.

I, Kermit Dealey, leave my first chair on the trombone to Hank Hockaday.

I, Reuben Dubson, leave my ability to make good grades to Tom Birge.

I, Pat Eastham, leave my flirting ability to Joanne Williams.

I, Sidney Foulke, leave my medals to Glenn Striech.

I, Maureen Gardner, leave my ability to write shorthand to any junior who is silly enough to take it.

I, Rollin Goodrich, leave my love for girls to Oren Groves.

I, Joyce Greeson, leave my cheerleading ability to Judy Chalcraft.

I, Christina Harmon, leave my ability to get along with Mrs. Cunningham to Marcia Walters.

I, Pauline Hicks, leave my southern accent to my brother Larry.

I, Pat Hoffman, leave my friendly smile to Pat Gibson.
I, David Howland, leave my love for playing basketball at noon to Tom Dash.
I, Norman Howland, leave my curly hair to Marvin Cole.
I, Phillip Hunt, leave my ability to run off and on the football field to Bob Doak.
I, Leon Ishmael, leave my inherited nickname of "Soupie" to my cousin, David Garren.
I, Bob Kinkaid, leave my ability to make anything funny to Bill Birge.
I, Martha Landgrebe, leave my love for Elvis Presley to Jenna McMillen.
I, La Von Larson, leave my affection for Clinton boys to Karen Miller.
I, Richard Lazell, leave my love for Angus cattle to Sonny Schroll.
I, Barbara McFarland, leave my Homecoming Crown and all that goes with it to next years queen and hope that she enjoys wearing it as much as I have.
I, Forest Pope, leave my "car-cars" to Eddie Fore.
I, Robert Runyen, leave my ability to quarrel with Mr. Burgener to Dale Probst.
I, Karen Rush, leave my natural curly hair to Sharon Boyer.
I, Janet Schroll, leave my smallness to Jackie Pulliam.
I, Joyce Smith, leave my athletic ability to Lila Fornwalt.
I, Carol Stogsdill, leave my blond hair and blue eyes to Judy Hinkle.
I, Dick Stone, leave my love for milking shorthorn cattle to Norman Etnier.
I, Mary Stone, leave my ink to the girls in next years shorthand class.
I, Adrienne Stoutenborough, leave my ability to get all the juicy gossip in town to anybody who wants it.
I, Betty Stuard, leave my ability to play the piano to Judy Daggett.
I, Dick Thomas, leave my position of football captain to Tiger Lowe and Gary McClung.
I, Shirley Thompson, leave my art ability to Judy Qualls.
I, Pat Vaughn, leave my ability to stay out late to anyone who thinks they can get by with it.
I, Kaye Wattles, leave my shyness to Billye Reed.
I, Dennis Williams, leave my ability to draw sports cars to Sheldon Nicol.
I, Bob Wood, leave the right side of my car to Janet Walters.

In witness whereof we hereunto set our hands and signature.

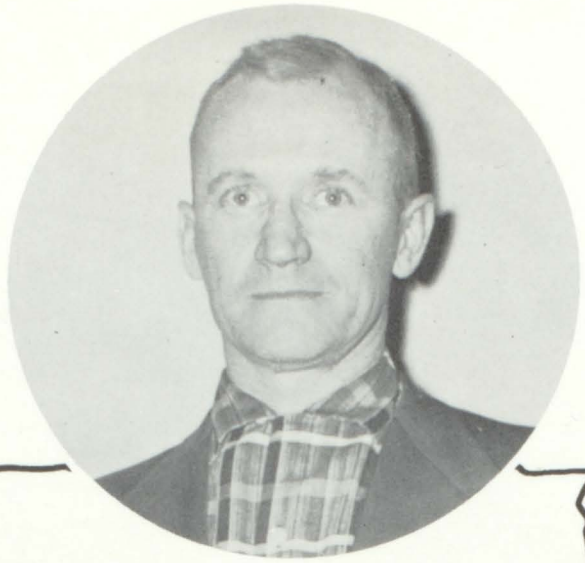
OUR COACHES

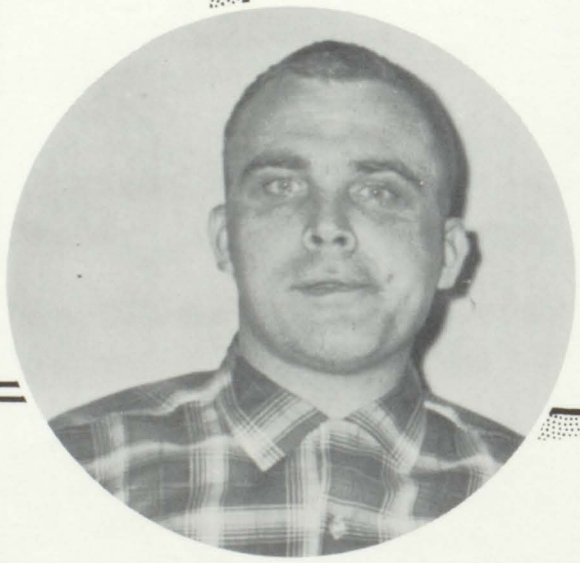


COACH BOYD

Walter D. Boyd has been coach in Maroa High School for the past ten years. The last four years, 1954-1957, his football team has been Soya Conference Champions. Until last year, he was the basketball coach. During his term as coach of basketball, he had two District Tournament victories. He has coached both baseball and track during the years he has been here.

COACH EDWARDS

Herman O. Edwards has been the head basketball coach at M. C. H. S. for the last two years. His 1957 team won the Regional and Sectional Tournaments and played in the "Sweet 16." Additional honors for the Edwards teams include co-championship in the Cenois Conference in 1958 and 1958, and Macon County Tournament Championship in 1958. Maroa shared top honors in the 1957 Lakeview Holiday Tournament.



SOYA CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS
